BRAVENLY PAYMENT FAQ'S

Q: Why didn't I get my commission check?

A: Check a few things, before worrying! Sometimes your email from INTERCHECKS will go to spam, check there. Then make sure that you have $20+ in available commissions. If you're still missing your payment, email support@bravenlyglobal.com

Q: Why was I charged for direct deposit?

A: INTERCHECKS charges a $2.00 fee for direct deposit or $2.50 for an emailed check.

Q: I had several customers place orders last week! Why haven't I gotten paid for that?

A: Weekly commissions are paid TWO WEEKS IN ARREARS.

Q: If direct deposit can I do checking, savings a combo of the two?

A: Yes! In your Interchecks account, you are able to manage your payment preferences, and switch banking information at your convenience.

Q: Who does the email come from?

A: For every payment, you will receive an email from INTERCHECKS on behalf of Bravenly.

Q: Does the email or payment ever expire?

A: You have 30 days from the time you receive your payment email to accept your payment via INTERCHECKS. Be sure to accept your payment when you receive your email! Should you have a concern, contact support@bravenlyglobal.com.

Q: How long will it take to auto deposit after I get the email?

A: Once you accept the payment from Bravenly, it depends on YOUR bank for the receiving time. For some, it's one business day and for others, it might take 3-4 days.

Q: Do I have to select my payment preference every time I get paid?

A: You can set up your payment preferences to auto-save what you chose the first time to continue until you change it!

Q: Can I view my payment history?

A: You bet! In your INTERCHECKS portal, which you set up the FIRST TIME you receive a commission check, you can view and manage all the details of your account, payment preferences, history and more!
